ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

General View of Monaco. This little principality sits on a huge rock with precipitous sides which juts out into the sea for 800 mètres, and is 65 mètres above the level of high water. A bridge connects rock and mainland. The territory formerly included Mentone and Roccabruna, but these were ceded to France in 1861 by Prince Charles III. The Palace is 15th century, the Cathedral modern.
